OVER IN SUMMIT.

What is Being Done in that Thriving Locality.

SUMMIT, March 10th, 1884.

EDITOR TIMES:—Farmers are busy making preparations for the spring work. If the weather continues favorable, a few more days will begin for oats.

Mr. Wm. Severe of this township, will rent his farm and try the mountain air of Montana Ty. for a while, at least.

Mr. Hill of Spruce township, has rented the Henry Donovan farm of 600 acres at $1,000. Looks like a large amount to pay as rent, but it's an excellent farm and very convenient.

Mrs. Julia A. Lafolett has rented her old home farm and moved on the one she bought of C. R. Radford some time ago. The farm she rented contains 240 acres and can't be beat in Bates county.

C. R. Radford has moved on the farm which he purchased of F. M. Licky.

There will be an effort made this spring, to form a new school district by cutting off part of dist. 3 and 4 of this township, and that part of district or districts in Deepwater township, lying in the forks of Deepwater creek adjoining. Gentlemen, we know it is very inconvenient to have water courses to cross, some times, but we don't see how we can let you off notwithstanding your earnest desires.

Wonder how a certain bald headed young man felt, at a social gathering one evening, when he was tendered a newspaper to read a sensational piece, with a pair of spectacles, by the matron of the house with the remark that they might be of some use to him?

A very pleasant social party at W. H. Caldwell's in Deepwater township the evening of the 5th inst. All enjoyed themselves extremely well, and a more pleasant and intelligent set of young folks than were present would be hard to find.

More anon. F. Oort.

The sensation caused at Paola, Kas., a few months ago by the killing of an old blind man by a young man named Orr, who resided in Rich Hill, has resulted in Orr, having had his trial and convicted of murder in the first degree. The Kansas law gives him his preference to hang or lifetime imprisonment.

DANIELS—NICHOLS.—At the residence of the bride's brother, in Knob Noster, Mo., on Tuesday, March 11th, 1884, half past 8 o'clock a. m., Mr. Geo. B. Daniels was united in the holy ties of matrimony to Miss Anna Nichols.

The bride and groom are both well known and highly esteemed in society at this place, both having resided here for a long time. The groom is a brother of R. W. Daniels of the Home Lumber Co., in this city, and is engaged in the same business at Sheldon, Mo. The bride has ever been a bright star in the social circles of the electric city, than whom none has more friends in our midst. The bride and groom are expected to arrive in Butler, to-night, (Wednesday).

The happy twain have many warm friends here who join the TIMES in wishing that their days on earth may be many and happy together; that the dark clouds of sorrow may never cast a shadow to cause them to regret the step they have taken, but may they enjoy every earthly blessing and finally anchor safely in the Great Beyond.

William Henry.

DIED.—At the residence of his parents in Lewistown, Illinois, Mar. 5th, 1884, William Henry, aged 26 years.

William Henry was born in Lewistown, Ills., in the spring of 1858. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1881, and moved to Missouri in the spring of 1882 and located in Butler. He began the practice of his chosen profession in the law office of his brother A. Henry. Though young in years, he was endowed with a bright intellect, and was making for himself an enviable reputation as a lawyer and citizen, when the fell destroyer, consumption, marked him as his victim.

About a month ago he resigned the position of city attorney and returned home to breathe his last, surrounded by fond parents and loving friends, among those loved scenes which had known his earlier youth and manhood.

Will Henry was the soul of honor, and would not stoop to do a small act, he was a dutiful and loving son, a kind and affectionate brother, and a true friend; modest and retiring in disposition, yet ever ready to respond to duty's call, loved by his friends, respected by all who knew him, he was indeed an exemplary character. Living, he would have won bright laurels among his adopted people, dying, he begets a tear from those who knew him best.

—B. B. Bigstaff, the old wheelhorse of Democracy in Summit, called in to see us last Saturday.
